

“Stuart Weitzman understands that a great shoe is about more than form or function; it is about making a woman feel beautiful.”

Capturing the attention of stylish shoe-obsessed women of all ages, Stuart Weitzman Holdings, LLC is a global leader in designer footwear with its modern playfully glamorous American styles. Headed by shoe designer Stuart Weitzman, the brand has a reputation for highly fashionable yet comfortable footwear designs, which have catapulted onto the pages of top international fashion magazines and red carpets worldwide.

Stuart Weitzman designs a special red carpet evening collection each year for Oscar night. From 2002-2008, he attracted media interest in the footwear strolling down the red carpet by creating an Oscar tradition of designing a one-of-a-kind jewelled pair of shoes for one lucky up-and-coming starlet to wear in Oscar night.

With its rapid international retail expansion, the brand is currently sold in 70 countries. Stuart Weitzman has retail stores across the globe. For over 30 years, Stuart has been committed to creating this experience, making shoes that caress, adorn and adore a woman's foot – shoes that ignite her imagination, making her feel glamorous.
